United Nations Regional Course in International Law, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, 2013

The Regional Courses in International Law (RCIL) provide high-quality training by leading scholars and practitioners on a broad range of core subjects of international law, as well as specific subjects of particular interest to developing countries in a given region. The Regional Courses also provide an opportunity for the participants to focus on contemporary issues of international law in the region with a view to promoting greater understanding and cooperation on such issues.

Applications for the 2013 United Nations Regional Course in International Law, scheduled to be held at the African Union in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, from 1 to 26 April 2013, are now being accepted from candidates from Member States of the United Nations which are also members of the regional group of African States. The deadline for applications is Friday, 30 November 2012.

The Regional Course will be conducted in English. For further information, including applications forms, please consult the Regional Course Web site at www.un.org/law/rcil/africa/; or contact the Codification Division (e-mail rcil-africa@un.org).

The Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs is seeking contributions from Member States for the regional course. For additional information or inquiries, please e-mail rcil-africa@un.org.

Announcement for Member States on issuance of communications

Delegations requesting issuance of communications as documents of the General Assembly should ensure that they are addressed to the Secretary-General and signed by the Permanent Representative or Chargé d'affaires of the Permanent Mission to the United Nations. The communications should indicate the session of the General Assembly, and the number and title of the agenda item under which circulation is requested, using the agenda of the sixty-seventh session of the General Assembly contained in document A/67/251. Electronic versions in Microsoft Word should be sent to gaab@un.org or dpu-dgacm@un.org, so as to facilitate the processing of communications. If versions in any other United Nations official languages are available, they should be included with a clear indication of the original language and/or which language versions are to be used for reference only.

Let United Nations documents come to you: e-subscription

The Department for General Assembly Affairs and Conference Management informs delegations that a simple and fast alternate way to access United Nations parliamentary documents electronically is available through the Department's e-subscription service at http://undocs.org/.

General Assembly

Sixty-seventh session

34th plenary meeting

Election of seven members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination: note by the Secretary-General (A/67/125/Rev.1) [item 110 (a)]

The General Assembly decided to proceed to the election on the basis of dispensing with the secret ballot.

Since the number of candidates nominated by the Economic and Social Council from among the African States, the Eastern European States, the Latin American and Caribbean States and the Western European and other States is equal to or less than the number of seats to be filled in each of those groups, Botswana, France, Peru, the Russian Federation and the United Republic of Tanzania were elected members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2013.

The General Assembly was reminded that, as indicated in document A/67/125/Rev.1, the Economic and Social Council postponed the nomination of one member from the Latin American and Caribbean States and one member from the Western European and other States for election for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2013. The General Assembly would be in a position to act on these vacancies upon nomination from the Economic and Social Council.

The General Assembly thus concluded this stage of its consideration of sub-item (a) of agenda item 110.

Election of eighteen members of the Human Rights Council [item 110 (d)]

On the first round of balloting, having obtained the required majority and the largest number of votes, Argentina (176 votes), Brazil (184 votes), Côte d'Ivoire (183 votes), Estonia (184 votes), Ethiopia (178 votes), Gabon (187 votes), Germany (127 votes), Ireland (124 votes), Japan (182 votes), Kazakhstan (183 votes), Kenya (180 votes), Montenegro (182 votes), Pakistan (171 votes), Republic of Korea (176 votes), Sierra Leone (182 votes), United Arab Emirates (184 votes), United States of America (131 votes) and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) (154 votes) were elected members of the Human Rights Council for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2013.

The General Assembly thus concluded its consideration of sub-item (d) of agenda item 110.

The Web site of the presidency of the Security Council can be visited at www.un.org/en/sc/presidency/.

Recorded information

Recorded information about previously unscheduled meetings and consultations of the whole of the Security Council may be obtained by calling 1 (212) 963-8530, or by clicking on "Daily Programme" on the Web site of the Security Council www.un.org/en/sc/.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room SA-1B12).
